Next Week's Faculty Competition -

Battle of the Bands

Well done to Bridgford college for winning the Colleges' Boccia competition at the end of last term.

Fantastic news for Year 11 student Sean Clarke, who has been appointed to the Worcestershire Football Association Youth Council after successfully undertaking an interview and presentation. Part of this role is to provide a link between youngsters with an interest in football and Worcestershire Football Association.

Sean is also a Worcestershire Football Association Football Leader and assists coaching Rock U14 Football team.

Year 13 students get ready to go to university

A record number of students in Year 13 have submitted their university applications to start in September 2016. In total, 78% of our current Year 13 students have been busy completing their personal statements ready to apply for university through UCAS.

Seventeen students have applied to the Russell Group universities, the most revered universities around the country. A selection of these courses and destinations includes Sophie Turbutt: History at Oxford; Alex Mapp: Chemical Engineering at Cambridge; Richard Allen: Environmental Science at Nottingham; Sam Bird: Chemical Engineering at Newcastle; Sophie Bublik: Japanese Studies at Sheffield; Dom Cooke: International Business at Liverpool; Alex Cook: Accounting and Finance at Birmingham; Ben Cross: Economics at Warwick; Pip Harper: Law at Exeter; Emma Jackson: Physiotherapy at Cardiff; Alex Prescott: Journalism at Cardiff; Emily Rollins: Psychology at Nottingham; Anna Schorfield: Biomedical Sciences at York; Luke Watson: Chemistry at Southampton; Ola Wojcieszak: Biomedical Sciences at Cardiff; Millie Yarrington: Midwifery at Manchester.

Congratulations to Jack Harwood who has been elected as the new VIth Form President. Jack will now lead the VIth Form Council and represent all Post-16 students on the School Council.

Survey launched for parents/carers, children & young people to help shape the new 0-19 Prevention Service Model.

Worcestershire County Council is redesigning a new prevention service for children and young people aged 0-19 and their families. We want parents/carers, children and young people to help shape the design of this service. Read more and take part in our survey by following the link this link survey

Emergency School Closure Procedure (in the event of snow, etc.) In the unlikely event that the school has to remain closed due to adverse weather conditions, notification will be conveyed to you in the following ways:- via text message; SHS website notification; Worcestershire County Council website and local radio stations (BBC Hereford & Worcester and Signal 1 Radio).
